

REGIONAL INFORMATION DAY PAARL/SWARTLAND

Building vineyard system resilience, restoratively.

Date: 19 September 2023
Venue: Zonnevanger
Cost: R250

Presented in collaboration with

PROGRAMME:

|                      |                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                       |
|----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 08:30 – 09:00 | REGISTRATION                                                                                                                       |  JOHN DEERE |
| 09:00 – 09:05 | OPENING &amp; WELCOMEHanno van Schalkwyk                                                                                       |                                                                                                       |
| 09:05 – 09:30 | THE NEW VINPRO: PRUNE TO PERFECTIONConrad Schutte, Vinpro CEO                                                                  |                                                                                                       |
| 09:30 – 10:00 | INTEGRATED VINEYARD MONITORING SYSTEM TO IMPROVE WATER MANAGEMENTAnke Berry, South African Grape and Wine Research Institute   |                                                                                                       |
| 10:00 – 10:30 | USE OF WINERY WASTEWATER AS A RESOURCE FOR IRRIGATION OF VINEYARDS IN DIFFERENT ENVIRONMENTSDr Carolyn Howell, ARC Nietvoorbij |                                                                                                       |
| 10:30 – 11:00 | REFRESHMENTS                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                       |
| 11:00 – 11:30 | BEEES, GUMTREES, AND REGULATIONSShelly Fuller, WWF                                                                             |                                                                                                       |
| 11:30 – 12:00 | SHOT HOLE BORER BEETLE IN SA VINEYARDSDr Francois Roets, US                                                                    |                                                                                                       |
| 12:00 – 12:30 | WE RUN SO LIFE CAN LEAP FORWARDAbrie Visser, John Deere                                                                        |                                                                                                       |
| 12:30         | CONCLUSION                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                       |

Register online at <https://sales.vinpro.co.za/> or contact Lesley Pause at 021 276 0429, lesley@vinpro.co.za.